RABBI'S FORUM

Rabbi Anthony Fratello

I had a conversation with a congregant recently, who asked about Saturday Morning Services. They expressed frustration that they couldn't come for worship. I said, "Who told you that you couldn't come?!" "Rabbi... isn't Saturday Morning just for the Bar/Bat Mitzvah Family?"

When we started our Religious School 20 years ago and our B'nei Mitzvah Programs, there were certain things we KNEW we wanted to avoid. First and foremost we wanted to avoid being a "Bar Mitzvah Mill," where kids and families get churned in and out with little or no thought beyond getting up on the Bema one day. Have we been successful? In some ways yes, and probably in other ways, no. Part of that ethos, however, was to have the Bar/Bat Mitzvah Ceremony take place in the context of the Congregation. Historically, that is what the Bar Mitzvah was all about, a young man leading the congregation in worship as an Adult Jew. If there is no congregation, how is it that the young man (or woman in the Liberal Jewish Context) can be recognized as an adult? Hence the fact that B'nei Mitzvah happen at TSS at a regularly scheduled worship service.

Parenthetically, this is part of why we do not have Havdallah B'nei Mitzvah here. If we had a regular, weekly Havdallah Service, I would have no problem having Havdallah B'nei Mitzvah. But without having a regular Havdallah Service, we would be having a service solely for the purpose of B'nei Mitzvah. And again, that is not what we are all about.

It is true that in the Reform Movement, Friday Night has taken the place of Saturday Morning as the "main" service of the week. But I will let you in on something, Saturday Mornings are the BEST kept secret in our congregation. When we have a young man or woman ascending the Bema, it is amazing to watch the pride and joy of their family at their accomplishment. On most weeks there are few dry eyes in the house. On those Saturdays when we don't have a Bar or Bat Mitzvah, we have a casual informal service after Torah Study, that itself is intimate and unique. Either way... you cannot lose.

"Rabbi... can I really attend on Saturday Mornings?" We would LOVE to have you.

-Shabbat Shalom!

CANTOR'S COLUMN

Cantor Judith Borden Ovadia

Last week I saw, like many of you, the musical Hamilton. I had seen it once before, on Broadway, and I've been obsessed with the music and the lyrics for three years. The genius of Lin-Manuel Miranda's score, how he uses the idiom of hip hop to capture the essence of the characters and conflicts of our founding fathers— these remarkable qualities have been written about by so many. But I've been thinking a lot about how this incredible, epic retelling of our nation's founding is similar to the story of Purim.

Hamilton's theme, repeated many times in the course of the play, claims that you have no control "who lives, who dies, who tells your story." This resonates with the tale of the Jews of Shushan. The evil Haman plots to annihilate all the Jews, casting lots to determine the day of their destruction. It takes the courage of one person, Esther, to rise up and save her people. Her cousin Mordecai compels her to address the king on behalf of the Jews. For all she knows, he reminds her, she may have been elevated to her royal position just for this purpose. So she musters her courage and asks the king to spare her life, and the lives of her people. As the song goes, she does not throw away her shot.

Who lives? The Jews. Who dies? Haman and his sons. Who tells their story? We do, every year, through the Megillah reading. Mordecai has letters sent throughout King Ahashuerus' kingdom Telling the tale of the brave Queen Esther and the evil Haman, and announcing the commemoration that becomes Purim for all time.

The common threads between these two things, Hamilton and Purim, remind us that we cannot control the unexpected storms of life that buffet us this way and that. We can, and must, however, stand up for what we believe in, even when doing so risks everything, even our life. Ultimately our legacy is endowed, not through the treasure we amass, but through the our courage and righteous deeds in the face of hardship and danger.

Join us for a lively Megillah Reading on the morning of March 8, 10:15 am, followed by our annual Purim Carnival! Hope to see you there!

Why Jewish Camp?

As many of you have heard, I LOVE Jewish Summer Camp! Having worked for the past 20 summers at Crane Lake Camp in Massachusetts including positions of Drama Director; Limmud (Education) Director and Israel Engagement Director; my children have become proud alumni of the camp. Some of their closest friends are from their camp experiences.

This year, I will be a faculty member at URJ Camp Coleman. The URJ has a wonderful camping program with many different options that address the needs and interests of all our children. At URJ Camp Coleman in Georgia you can find a traditional camp experience for students entering 4th – 10th Grade. There are two sessions, so campers can attend when it is convenient for their families. There are also several special programs for rising 1st -3rd graders, so that they can get a taste of the camp experience. These specially designed mini camps allow children to try camp for a few days. For more information, please consult their website: <https://campcoleman.org>.

Jewish Summer Camps fuse the activities, friendships, and communal life of traditional camps with the Jewish values, role models and culture of our shared heritage. Campers live a Jewish life 24/7, from singing Hamotzi before breakfast, to ending the day with the bedtime Sh'ma. This uniquely immersive experience provides a confidence-building opportunity in which campers experience joy and discovery in a communal Jewish setting.

Please follow this link to ReformJudaism.org – to read a wonderful article about the importance of Jewish Camping <https://reformjudaism.org/six-reasons-attend-jewish-summer-camp>

For those children who want to hone their sports skills, are interested in the arts or science and technology; we have the 6 POINTS Academies. These programs offer two-week sessions.

6 Points Sports Academy <https://6pointssports.org/>

6 Points Creative Arts Academy
<https://6pointscreativearts.org/>

6 Points Sci-Tech Academy <https://6pointsscitech.org/>

Finally, NFTY, the National Federation of Temple Youth, has many programs for high school students. There is URJMitzvah Corps which offers social justice experiences in North America and Israel <https://mitzvahcorps.org/program-options/>

There are also several different trips to Israel <https://nftyisrael.org/> designed to offer a unique Israel experience according to the teen's tastes and interests.

If you have questions or want more information, please call me, or contact the programs directly. Our congregation grants partial scholarships to all children that attend a URJ Summer Camp. In addition, there are some financial incentives for first timers available through the Foundation for Jewish Camp.

Support Our Youth Group and Sponsor the 2020 Purim Carnival!

Dear Congregants and Friends,

Our annual Purim Carnival will be held on Sunday, March 8, 2020. We need your help! STARY Youth Group teens and other members of our Congregation have worked very hard to ensure the success of this year's carnival, but we still need volunteers and SPONSORS!

Sponsors help subsidize the cost of the Carnival and youth group activities, so our children and teens can experience Judaism, leadership, community service, informal education and fun!

As a Sponsor, your generosity will be recognized in the April issue of News & Views and on Carnival signage.

The Purim Carnival puts the 'fun' in fundraising, so please donate! Also, if you would like to volunteer at the event, please let me know by email: Youth@templeshaareishalom.com. We hope that you will come and enjoy all of the wonderful activities the Carnival has to offer.

Sincerely,

Pam McCarthy

Caryn Feldman
Temple Shaarei Shalom
9085 Hagen Ranch Road
Boynton Beach, FL 33472

Dear Ms. Feldman:

The Soup Kitchen Meals on Wheels (TSK MOW) program serves home-bound residents of Boynton Beach. Our clients, struggling with failing health and/or the frailty of advanced age, have an especially difficult time during the holidays. Many have outlived their family and friends (often including children) while others may have family, but they live in other states. Fiercely fighting to remain independent despite their situations, these seniors are frequently unwilling to mention to any loved ones that they are in touch with that the holidays can be a sad time. They don't "want to be a burden."

We are so grateful to Holly Bromer who contacted you prior to the holidays. Ms. Bromer, a volunteer, graciously offered to put together gift bags for our clients to remind these seniors that they matter to their community and that they have not been forgotten. And I must say, it worked wonderfully.

Ms. Feldman, we so appreciate the kind contributions to this effort made by Temple Shaarei Shalom. The TSK MOW clients beamed with delight when presented with the gift bags. The Soup Kitchen phones didn't stop ringing for days after the seniors received them. One after another they called to express their appreciation and state how touched they were by the kind gesture. The clients were overjoyed by each and every item but mostly because they had been remembered by a caring community.

The Soup Kitchen does not ask for or receive any state or federal money. We were founded by and continue to succeed because of the compassionate and generous residents of this area. The Soup Kitchen Meals on Wheels program and the many we serve are greatly blessed by your support. Thank you!

Leave your Legacy

What is the Legacy Society?

Members and Non-members who have planned to leave a Legacy Gift to Temple Shaarei Shalom in the future through a will, trust, life insurance policy, 401(k)/IRA beneficiary or other form of donation.

How do I become a Legacy Society Member?

Complete the Letter of Intent Form that indicates that you wish to provide a Legacy Gift to Temple Shaarei Shalom. The form is on our website or pick it up from the office. You do not have to indicate what type of gift or how much you wish to leave to Temple Shaarei Shalom. This is completely revocable at anytime.

Who decides where the money goes and how it's spent?

All Legacy donations are invested in Temple Shaarei Shalom's Endowment account. As the donor you can choose to earmark the money for a specific fund, however, we have an endowment committee that works with a Financial Planner to invest all endowment monies per our Temple Constitution. The earnings from the endowment are disbursed per our Constitution.

What if I already named the temple in a future gift?

Then you are already a Member of The Legacy Society, just call the office and let us know so we can recognize and thank you.

What is a Living Legacy Donation?

Any donation into one of our below Endowments of $1000 or more (one-time donation) qualifies as a Living Legacy Donor:

Alpert Endowment (URJ Overnight Camp Scholarships)
Ernsteen Endowment (Membership Dues Assistance)
Rabbi Fratello Endowment (Special Programming)
Milowe Endowment (Scholar-in-Residence)

Price Endowment (Youth Leadership)
Seinberg Endowment (Post B'nei Mitzvah Scholarship)
Wecker Endowment (Reserve Account)

Have you named TSS in your will, estate, life insurance or 401K?

If so, please let us know so we can recognize you as a member of the TSS Legacy Society

"We are participating in the Temple Legacy Program because we know that dues alone do not support the Temple and it's programs. We believe it is incumbent upon us to pay it forward so that Temple Shaarei Shalom may continue and grow to serve future generations of members and their children"

- Shirley and Harold Fidler

After many years of planning, Ellis and I retired to Florida from Philadelphia in 2004. We were looking forward to our new and different life but we weren't sure how long it would take to find a home and a temple. I walked into TSS and immediately it felt right. I was active in my temple in the Philadelphia suburbs. I knew that the best way to find good people was to become part of a committee and both Ellis and I did just that. Ellis chaired the adult ed committee and I joined membership and the choir. It was a perfect fit for both of us. TSS provided opportunities for intellectual, emotional and ritual growth. I began going to the Rabbi's Torah study and I loved it. We felt welcomed and embraced by the community. We were part of the life cycle events and the social life that TSS provided. Our story is not unique. There are more and more of us moving here. There are young, middle aged and older people who also need what we found. We are leaving a legacy to TSS so that people starting anew will continue to be nourished, intellectually stimulated, and appreciated for all of their skills and talents just waiting to burst forth. My sincere wish is that you will consider giving in this way.

- Bobby and Ellis Katz
