RABBI'S FORUM

Rabbi Anthony Fratello, MAHL, DD

I dream of the day that cancer will be a thing of the past.

How many of you out there know someone, a friend, a neighbor, a loved one who has struggled against this dread disease? Some receive treatment and recover. Some receive treatment and do not. All are impacted, friends, neighbors, loved ones.

I dream of the day that cancer will be a thing of the past.

In our congregation and our community, how many times do we hear strange sounding words like chemotherapy, radiation, mastectomy, gamma knife? How many times have we heard these strange, exotic words, and shuddered to ourselves because we understand them? We know what these words mean. We know what these words are about.

I dream of the day that cancer will be a thing of the past.

How many of us have hoped against hope, or reached out to God with all of our might for outcomes we knew to be impossible? How many other times have loved ones seemed at the brink, only to be returned to us again? We have given ourselves, our time, our treasure to make a difference. We have prayed for a cure, for a chance, for hope. How many times have we had to wait, only to see that there is precious little we can do.

I dream of the day that cancer will be a thing of the past.

There is something we can do, and I invite you all to do it with me. As we have for many years now, Temple Shaarei Shalom will be fielding a Team for the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure. This year's Komen Walk will take place on Saturday, January 25, 2025, in West Palm Beach. As in years past, we will begin with Minyan at the Komen at 8 AM, and then join the walk for Breast Cancer research. I invite you all to join us. For those who have made this event in years past, you know how special and meaningful it is. For those who have always wanted to join us, but who have never had the chance, let this year be the year. To sign up or donate to our team Click Here or scan the QR code above or you can be in touch with our Team Captain, Lisa Tenenbaum at 561-236-6155

Cantor's Corner

Cantor Carry Barry, MSM

You may have heard the quote, “He who sings prays twice.” Often attributed to the fifth century Saint Augustine, the phrase is well known in religious circles. Music, specifically music used in worship, has long been thought to be a direct path for us to tap into our spiritual well, enhancing our ability to connect with God.

In 2008, Jewish composer Michael Ochs used the phrase as the basis for a piece he composed in Berlin while there to commemorate the 70th anniversary of Kristallnacht. Adapting the original, he wrote, “When we sing, we pray twice. When we sing, we are one. Shiru L’Adonai (let us sing to God).”

What I love about Ochs’s work is how the focus shifts from the singular to the plural and from prayer to community. Music has brought people together for thousands of years, from ancient rituals and traditional dances to the towering cathedrals of Europe, and from the smallest of campfires to the biggest stadiums. Whether we are pouring out our souls in prayer or singing along to Taylor Swift, the power of singing in a group can catapult us into a place with divine energy.

I’m sure by now you know we are hosting a Cantorial concert at Temple Shaarei Shalom on Saturday evening, January 11th. I will be joined by Cantor Jake Harris from Temple Beth El, Cantor David Muchnick from Congregation B’nai Israel, and Cantor Rachel Slusky from Temple Beth Torah. The theme of the concert is “Shirei L’neshamah—Songs for the Soul.” We will be bringing you music from both the synagogue and the theater and we endeavor to nourish all of our spirits through pieces that are moving and inspirational (with some comedic palate cleansers!). The program is a mix of solo work, duets, and quartets, with a guest appearance by our own volunteer choir, Kol Shalom.

As cantors, being able to sing together is a true gift. In school, much of our training involved serving as the choir for other students as they presented their recitals. That camaraderie we built each time we prepared for a concert was so special. Being able to gather this group of local cantors for the purpose of sharing meaningful music with each other and with you is an unparalleled joy.

The vision for this concert is one of community—our Jewish Palm Beach Community, our TSS Community, and my cantorial community. The program is about all of us experiencing the power of music together, allowing it to seep into our souls, and, finally, letting it bring us together as one.

As we begin this secular New Year, I hope to see many of you on the 11th, but my wish for us all is that 2025 brings us many opportunities to deepen our connections within the different communities to which we belong. And if you feel yourself getting down, add a little music!

To book tickets or sponsor our concert please see the front cover of News & Views or Click Here.

Director of Congregational Learning

Nancy Bossov, RJE

We've been exploring and anticipating the important process of creating a new curriculum for our Religious School. We will begin the process with our faculty, then involve parents and the leadership of the congregation. This is a communal priority, and everybody's perspective is helpful. We are particularly fortunate to have the opportunity of bringing in a consultant with a rich background in Jewish education to help coordinate the process. Dr. Daphne Cohen has joined our staff through the JobWorx organization. We will surely benefit greatly from collaborating with her!

We welcome Dr. Daphne M. Cohen to our community as our Curriculum Project Coordinator. We are so fortunate to have her join our Religious School Faculty in a several-month process of creating a curriculum for our students that provides them with a meaningful, fascinating, far-reaching content based and spiritual connection with Judaism.

Dr. Cohen is part of a unique program that allows her to re-enter the professional world of Jewish education with a Mentor (Nancy Bossov) and a community (TSS) that provides her the support and friendship for a stimulating professional experience. We benefit greatly from her experience and as a training site, we benefit greatly without cost to us.

Dr. Cohen received her EdD in 2006 at Azrieli Graduate School of Jewish Education and Administration at Yeshiva University. She conducted doctoral research on children's (middle school aged) views on basic concepts in morality based upon the work of Piaget, Kohlberg, Vygotsky, and Gilligan at the United Nations International Schools.

She also served as an associate Professor at the Graduate School of General and Special Education at Touro College. Professor Cohen designed the curriculum for the first approved master's program in Jewish, General and Special Education for Elementary and Early childhood teachers. In addition, Professor Cohen taught a variety of methods courses at the graduate school of Education at Touro College integrating technology into various disciplines for elementary and middle school teachers. Dr. Cohen has taught curriculum and educational technology along with library programs in various Jewish day schools and religious schools of all denominations in Judaism including Reform, Conservative, Modern Orthodox and Jewish Community based such as JCC's, Jewish Teachers centers and Jewish Camps. She's also taught online courses for the University of Phoenix and Touro College.

A key highlight in Dr. Cohen's career was the publication of her children's book The Colorful Rainbow Dream, which explores moral and character education, and a companion educator's resource guide. Dr. Cohen has gone through an extensive training program with CEP-Character Educational Partnership in Washington, D.C., integrating values education into the K-12 curriculum.

She holds a Principal and Teacher's License from the National Board of License for Teachers and Principals of Jewish Day Schools in North America. Finally, Dr. Cohen spent a year studying at Jerusalem College in Israel.

We are incredibly lucky to have such an esteemed scholar collaborating with us as we delve into this important process.

From our President

Only Israeli citizens get a vote in the Knesset, but all Jews can vote in the elections to the World Zionist Congress. These elections determine the political power balance in all of the National Institutions for the legislative period until the next congress elections. The World Zionist Congress election is a powerful way for Reform voices and Reform values to have a real and impactful say in how Israel spends its money and treats its people. We can help build a future for Israel that is democratic, pluralistic, and secure.

The outcome of the WZC election directly impacts our ability to engage in vital advocacy and legal work in Israel. Even in the difficult days since October 7th, our democracy work through the Israel Movement for Reform and Progression Judaism (IMPJ) and Israel Religious Action Center (IRAC), has proven crucial for Israel's secure and democratic nature and for marginalized individuals within Israeli society.

What's at stake in the 2025 WZC election?

Nothing less than the soul of the State of Israel is at stake in the 2025 WZC election. The ultra-Orthodox and ultra-Nationalist movements are using the levers provided through these institutions – and power gained in the World Zionist Congress elections – to advance their agenda, including:

- Increased funding for Settlements
- Rolling back gains for LGBTQ+ rights, gender equity, and religious pluralism
- Stripping Israeli Reform clergy and communities of their rights and funding
- Advancing policies to weaken the influence of Reform Jews by rejecting our conversions and questioning the authenticity of our children's Jewish identity.
- Ensuring ultra-Orthodox Israelis will not serve in the IDF
- Advancing the Netanyahu Government's judicial overhaul and anti-democratic policies of racist politicians like Ministers Itamar Ben-Gvir and Bezalel Smotrich.
- Allowing the ultra-Orthodox to keep the core curriculum out of their schools, and to advance additional gender segregation in Israeli society.

We cannot let this happen. We are committed to a bold campaign to organize and mobilize turnout for the 2025 WZC vote. Your participation is vital to ensure that we secure a future for Reform Judaism, Democracy, and Peace in Israel.

It is hard in a few words to convey the importance of every one of us participating in this worldwide election March 10-May 4, 2025!

The World Zionist Congress is our one chance to have a vote in the policy and budget decisions of the Jewish state. If you participate, you will help ensure that billions of dollars will continue to be allocated for progressive Judaism, for justice and democracy, and even we pray, peace efforts in Israel. If you struggled to answer the question, "What can I really do to make a difference in Israel right now?" this is your answer!

Voting is simple, impactful, and crucial. By participating between March 10 and May 4, 2025, you'll help secure a democratic, pluralistic, and secure future for Israel. Let's stand together and make our voices heard for a better tomorrow.

We will have more information on how to cast your vote in the coming months.
